1. The lively truck traffic observed in Halle and Magdeburg between 15 and 31 October 1946 suddenly dropped to below normal during early November.

2. Between 28 October and 10 November only one 44-car troop train moved through Halle from Eisenach (H76) to Cottbus (A57). During this period ninety-five trains, totaling 4,202 cars, hauled dismantled material eastward through Halle. No additional trains were being prepared for the deportation of workers.
